

Sustainable soil management & healthy food

9 February 2017 (09:30 – 17:30), Orion Building, Wageningen

Soil management affects the quality and health of our soils, food, cattle and milk, and human health. This symposium will explore various aspects of the issue.

Programme:

09:30 Coffee & registration

10:00 Opening by chairman dr. sc. J.D. van Mansvelt (Down2Earth), former Professor of Biological Agriculture

10:05 How (un)healthy is our FOOD? – Ass. Prof. dr. E. Kompanje (Erasmus MC)

10:30 Group reflection, moderated by Prof. dr. J. Seidell (VU Amsterdam)

10:40 The health of our CATTLE and our MILK – ir. A. Nigten (Down2Earth)

11:05 Group reflection, moderated by ir. C. van Veluw (LBI/WUR)

11:15 Fertilization and the health of our CROPS – Prof. dr. R. Sinha (Griffith University, Australia)

12:00 Group reflection, moderated by dhr. A. Brinkmann (BVOR)

12:10 Plenary discussion

12:30 Lunch

13:30 The quality of our SOILS – Prof. dr. L. Brussaard (WUR)

13:55 Group reflection, moderated by Prof. dr. M. van Ittersum (WUR)

14:05 Working group sessions:

1. FOOD quality (chaired by J. Seidell in conjunction with E. Kompanje)
2. MILK & CATTLE quality (chaired by C. van Veluw in conjunction with A. Nigten)
3. CROP quality (chaired by A. Brinkmann in conjunction with R. Sinha)
4. SOIL quality (chaired by M. van Ittersum in conjunction with L. Brussaard)

16:15 Plenary briefing by working groups

16:45 Closing words by the chairman

17:00 Drinks

Registration is required to attend this symposium. Please register by transferring the symposium fee of €50,- (€25,- for low-income groups) to account nr. NL41Rabo0367072149 in the name of A Nigten, mentioning ‘Symposium’ followed by your name and e-mail address.

Organisers: Jan Diek van Mansvelt, Anton Nigten (Down2Earth) and Gerard Korthals (Centre for Soil Ecology NIOO/WUR).

Date: 9 Feb. 2017. Venue: Building 103 (‘Orion’), Bronland 1, Wageningen. Tel. +31 31 748 87 77.